Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

1. This office action is in response to the application filed on June 28, 2005.
2. Claims 47-71 are allowed
3. Claims include limitations that the prior art of record does not appear to teach or render obvious the claimed limitations as recited below.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Cookmeyer, II et al. U.S. Patent 6,529,954 teach a knowledge based system capable of assisting the diagnosis of network performance by allowing the user to enter information regarding the nature of the analysis, including specific problem conditions. The knowledge based system then automatically modified in dependence on the characteristics of the user stated problem, and allowing instructions to the users in the troubleshooting process that can provide additional assistance to them during the problem analysis. However, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest individually or in combination, despite some slight wording, as stated in claims 47, 68, 69, and 71 “a system for automatically providing an administrator the diagnostic data and instructions to troubleshoot a selected problem event occur in the computing environment comprising: a problem event processor for determining which of a plurality of troubleshooting types corresponds to the selected problem event; a troubleshooting profile manager for selecting a troubleshooting profile associated with the determined troubleshooting type; and a troubleshooting portal view manager for executing the troubleshooting profile and one or more troubleshooting data miner modules reference in the troubleshooting profile to generate or cause the generation of the diagnostic data and
